“ I have the best memories of Mr. Mills while growing up going to church with he and Paula at Suncrest Baptist Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He was very involved with every aspect of our church, and a great witness to all with everything he did for our church family. My first great memories are those of the Puppet Ministry that Jay and Paula built for us youth to visit other churches for ministry. Great times were had by all of us! And what an inspiration for us all! Then as we got older, Mr. and Mrs. Mills made it a point to greatly prepare our cabin at our summer camp called Falls Creek during hot Oklahoma summers. They did all of the up-keep, cleaning and preparation for us teenagers to have a very memorable time there. Jay was super to be around and always helpful. Those were fantastic memories for myself in growing up, and in Christ, with Jay Mills. <3

“ A VERY NICE MAN, HE HAS THROWN THAT WHEEL CHAIR AWAY & IS WALKING THRU HEAVEN WITH PAULA NOW, ALL THE PAIN & SUFFERING ARE GONE. RONA I ADMIRE YOU FOR TAKING CARE OF HIM, I KNOW IT WAS HARD WHEN YOU HAD RICK & YOUR HOME TO TAKE CARE OF. I'M SO GLAD THAT JEFF GOT TO TAKE CARE OF HIM, THEY FORMED A GOOD FRIENDSHIP. MY THOUGHTS & PRAYERS ARE FOR ALL OF THE FAMILY FOR COMFORT.

“ One of the finest men God ever put on this earth. Am so thankful for the years of friendship that my family was honored the privilege of having.

*No only a wonderful man but Jay and Paula were a team that blessed so many and their greatest asset was the family they raised to carry on the love and faith that was so important to them. Thank you God for giving us Jay
