“ Dear Margaret and Charles, so sorry to hear about your mom. My mom died in Feb. I have such lovely memories of our moms helping with Brownies and then Girl Scouts. Your mom was always ready to help with food, decorations for plays or what ever we dreamed up! We had great fun and our mothers were a wonderful part of that. Best to you and your family. Sincerely, Bonnie

“ Aunt Jean was the special Aunt in my life, she was the one I called after my own mother passed away (her sister) she sounded so much like my mother I felt my Mom was still with me. Aunt Jean was the care taker of our family in so many ways not just for me but for my cousins. She was the one who spiked my interest in our family history with the stories she remembered her own parents telling. We all miss her very much, I will miss our chats and the thanksgiving gatherings we had. Much love to my cousins Margaret and Charles and their family. Denise
