“ My dearest nephew, Joe, and the rest of Jeff's family: Jeff was one of the sweetest, kindest people that I ever knew. Though it's been years since I last saw him, I still remember his welcoming smile and his care-free attitude. He will be missed by so many. Joe, I know that you're sad that he never had the chance to meet his newest granddaughter, Sateeva, but know that he's watching over her and all of his children and grandchildren. You're in our hearts and prayers.
