

Jerolene Dearmore

October 9, 1930 - March 26, 2022

Jerolene Dearmore, lifelong Okmulgee County resident, passed away Saturday, March 26, 2022 in Tulsa at ninety one years of age. Jerolene was born October 9, 1930 in Morris to the late Horace D. and Marie Rose (Childress) Slape. She graduated from Liberty Morris High School. Jerolene married James R. Dearmore, who preceded her in death in 2008. She worked for 30 years at Ball Brothers, retiring October 31, 1985. She enjoyed reading, especially the Bible, attending Bible Studies, playing the guitar and singing. Jerolene and her family were longtime members of the Liberty Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husbands, James R. Dearmore and Truett Hendricks, a daughter, Rhonda Jacobs, a sister, Daisy Johnson and two brothers, Adrian and Eugene Slape.

Survivors include her two sons, Russ Dearmore and wife Anna and Jay Dearmore and wife Kim, two brothers, James Slape and wife Colleen and John Slape and wife Paula, five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home of Okmulgee. Memories, condolences, photos and videos may be shared with the family on Jerolene's Tribute Page of our website.
