

Jimmy Charles Pushmataha

May 3, 1926 - February 8, 2010

Jimmy Charles Pushmataha, 83, died in Okmulgee on Monday, February 8, 2010. Services are pending

Jimmy Charles Pushmataha, 83, departed this life to join his son, friends, and loved ones in a better place on Monday, February 8, 2010. He was born on May 3, 1926 to Lee Roy Greenhaw and Eunise Cecelia (Cooper) Greenhaw in Miami, Florida. He was a citizen of the Choctaw Nation and very proud of his Indian heritage.

Jim graduated from high school in Los Angeles, CA. and received his BA at Southern Cal University. He went on to play professional football as a fullback for the Baltimore Colts. Following his career in sports he made his living in advertising. Jim composed and produced television ads for several large corporations in California including Honda. In 1980 Jim retired and moved to Okmulgee to care for his mother.

Jim resided at Creek Nation Housing for 30 years, where he worked part time until 2009 as the Security Guard. In 2002 he was elected President of the CN Elderly Housing Tenant Association. He remained President and was a faithful and loyal supporter of all residential activities until his death. His interests included all sports. He was an avid pool player and will be remembered for his extraordinary skill and love of the game.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, one son Rory Elder of Monterey, CA. He is survived by a daughter, Teresa Weiby and husband Clayton of Minnetonka, Minnesota, sons Paul Greenhaw and wife Patricia of Scarsdale, New York, Scott Greenhaw of New York, New York, daughter in law Vicki elder of Monterey, CA and nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Jim will be missed by his family and many friends. A Memorial Service will be held at 1 PM on Friday, February 12, 2010 at the Creek nation Elderly Housing Center. Following the Memorial Service final disposition will be a private family service in the Choctaw Nation. Online with the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home.

Previous Events

Service

FEB 12. 1:00 PM (CT)

Creek Nation Elderly Housing Center
Okmulgee, OK

Tribute Wall

“ Jimmy Charles Pushmataha

---

December 20, 2022 at 11:29 AM