“ Jo Ellen and I were friends as young girls. We went to the same church and some of my fondest memories are the many times I went home with her after church and spent the afternoon with her family. Also remember the day her mother made strawberry shortcake for dinner. It was the best I had ever eaten. About the time we started Jr. High Jo's family moved to Tulsa. We wrote back and forth a few times then lost track of each other but my memories are very strong.

Praying for God's peace and comfort for your family. Dolores Malone Roland
