“ *Dear Brittany,
I am so very sorry to hear about your dad. My heart hurts for you and your family. There is not anything that we can say to make you feel better, but try to remember that you teachers and friends are thinking of you and praying for God to comfort you. You will be missed while you are away. I will do everything that I can to help you when you get back to school.*

*Much love,
Mrs. Williams*
