“ When Bain and I were young we would ride around inside the arena before the rodeo started and then he wanted to ride around outside the arena during the rodeo. Over the years, we grew up together at rodeo's and every rodeo I went and looked for Bain to ride around with me. He was my inspiration and gave me the love in my heart for individuals with special needs. Because of Bain I have been a Multi-Handicapped Special Education for twenty years. Fly high my friend and I will always cherish our friendship and the gift you gave me!! Camy Enlow-Nicholson

“ Bain was so special in our family. He could have us laughing so hard when he would tell us his stories. If he ever met you he would always remember the car that you were driving and tell you about it.
We will miss him so much. It leaves a void in our hearts.

“ I was his brother. Not because we were from the same parents, but because Bain made me his brother. He dumped Riley (his real sister) as soon as he met me. I will always remember his laugh and always showing me off to everyone he could.
