“ Never met a person so kind and loyal. He loved so much in deed and not just words. Always willing to make sure everyone was taken care of. We played golf, we fished, we shared each other's jigs we made, we shot guns at the range, and we hunted so much for so many years. So glad I had the pleasure of being Johns friend and sharing so many memories together. John always talked about his family and how they taught him so many life's lessons. I was so happy that he found the love of his life, Amber and his kids, He deserved that so much. I know will all see John again in heaven because Jesus says so.

You'll always be in my heart buddy.
