“ John was a big man with a heart to match. I never knew him to turn away from his friends and family. He was always there when they needed him. There were many times when he was there for me and I will never forget! He will be deeply missed! To the family I know you feel the hurt of losing him, but just remember that he is now sitting in Heaven with no pain, no worries - probably amazed at the beauty around him. His time on Earth was over and God wanted him home. So long old friend!

“ *There are no words, no matter how eloquent or their arrangement, to describe when someone near leaves us our hearts are broken. For them the hurt, fear and tears are over, but we are here to feel hurt and tears. To all the Lewis family, you are in my thoughts and prayers. With love from your friend,
