“ Patty,

*Hey girl, remember me? It's only been just over 52 yrs!!!
While surfing the web on Tuesday of this week, I came across John's obit. Can't describe my feeling; surprise, shock.. ? Not sure. I just know I'm so sorry for you & your family having this incredible loss and incalculable grief in your lives. It's been nine months now, but there are those holidays and special occasions to get through.
We'll be praying. God bless.*

Though I never got to know John very well, I do remember him as friendly, ruggedly hansom, and an outdoorsman..... very likeable.

BTW, I sent a "friend request" to you on Face Book. Hope you will eventually get around to confirming it. My quick observation is that: you may not be as addicted to social media as some of us??

Love, Don Guy

“ *Patty, John Jr., and family,
You are in our thoughts and prayers. Words cannot express the loss that I know you and your family must feel.
I worked several years with John. We picked each other's brains regarding insurance products. He was always a gentleman and I hold him in the highest regard. He loved the Lord, and sang like an angel.
Love and prayers,
