“ Glenn was such a good friend in school at Arnett. Walked home together to the south side of town everyday after school. He always had such a "good" laugh.

My sincere condolences, Rexie.##imported-begin##Rexie Holloway##imported-end##

“ Glenn was a wonderful christian, who had a smile for everyone. He was strong in his faith to the end, but now he is with His Father, Abba. Though we do not understand why . . . we know he has met his Maker. Praise God.##imported-begin##Jimmie Rae and Glendell Miller##imported-end##

“ I loved Glenn as my only brother. I will miss him so greatly. He was so important to me and my kids in my life. I will only have fond wonderful memories of him. I remember canoeing with him and Dillon making him fall out of the boat and David helping him alone in the current- they looked so funny. He was the only brother I ever had and I will miss him so much.....##imported-begin##Kathern Shaine##imported-end##

“ Glenn was my classmate and neighbor in Arnett. I remember he and Steve Whipple, our next-door neighbor, sleeping outside in a tent in the summertime. He got a 'country education' from his classmates in Arnett. In science class, he pranked Norman Bayless more than once.##imported-begin##Barbara THORN Liggett##imported-end##
