“ I didn't know my mothers sister Aunt Juanita very well, but all my life my mother would tell us stories of her adventures, of her love for her family and all kinds of animals as well as ranching. She was gentle and loving as well as tough and strong. I have a few cows and horses and are aware of the hard work, dedication and perseverance involved doing all of this all along raising a family. People willing to work this hard are become fewer and fewer. Women willing to do it are even more rare. She was ahead of her time and a strong role model for us all. To her children, my first cousins, their children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren, you are the living legacy of your parents. I know you will miss her always, but know forever that you have been loved and blessed and you will be together again, as promised us by our Lord Jesus Christ.

The clock of life is wound but on
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop
On what day — or what hour.
Now is the only time you have
So live it with a will
Don't wait until tomorrow
The hands may then be still.

An amazing person and someone I am thankful to have known as a young man. Many fond memories surround my time spent at her kitchen table and her place. Everything from learning to make butter, how to peel a potato, or even snap beans and just be there for family when needed. My prayers are with the family.
