Lisa and family, I just heard the news today and am so sorry for your loss. Judy was a dear sweet lady and she always seemed to be more a friend as well as a family member. I know they say time heals but hopefully the pain passes quickly and then all the sweet memories overflow in your heart. She will be missed by all who knew her.

“ I just know that Judy is having a blast right now up there in her new home. She'll be missed down here for sure. Lisa, I had some good times with you and your Mom with her sweet smile and her quiet way of getting her message across. I have memories of her with a paint brush in one hand and a slushy in the other. Good memories of fun times with a very special lady, actually two special ladies! Love ya!

“ GG, you loved us all deeply— and we felt it. I hope you felt our love pouring out back at you. It’s hard knowing you’re no longer here, but it’s great to know that you’re Home. I’m going to miss seeing you with Carter, your great grandson, but the memories we share with you in them are some that we will treasure forever. You were the best GG there is. Thank you for loving me as one of your own. See you soon. ❤️
