“ Hey Jules, I will always remember all the great times we had together. I'm so thankful we are apart of your family. You were always there for me and gave such great advice. I'm glad Paine got to know you and he always enjoyed coming over and eating your banana popsicles. I will see you again great friend.

“ I can always remember us going down to Bunkys and watching football and having a great time, and you always asking how my kiddos was. They loved their Jewels. You always had a smile on your face, even if you was gripping at Bob. Lol.
