“ I can hear her now at the family gatherings where she always had delicious home made fudge. "Martha Lou, the coffee's ready." She knew I loved coffee and fudge together. Bet she brewing a pot now. She was a woman of strong faith.

“ I was so privileged to be with Aunt June and her loving family when she stepped out of this life and into the splendor of God's Heaven. She's home now, in the company of her son, sister, mother, and so many more. One of my fondest memories of Aunt June, is that she would always, and I mean always, have my favorite foods available when I went to visit. She was so thoughtful in so many ways. I loved to go to her house and spend time with Vicki and Kent. I have life long memories of time spent in Morris, Ok. Love to all her family.

“ Thoughts and prayers for Aunt June's family. I am married to her nephew Mark. He often shares fond memories of the times they played moon. Mark is comforted that Aunt June is in Heaven with his Momma Pat and all her loved ones. I remember when I first met Aunt June, she made me feel like I had known her my whole life. She was such a joy with her warm hugs and sweet smile. Praying for all of her family and friends. May God comfort you all. Love,
