Kathyrn "Kate" Louise Castator Creason, was born on February 4, 1941, in Bristow, Oklahoma to Sam and Marie Castator and departed this world on November 26, 2024, at the age of 83 years old.

“ *You have my deepest condolences. I can remember myself being very not old enough to work . This sweet lady would let me in the laundry mat to clean the machine off and I believe to probably get on her nerves, lol. She was very caring and sweet. Rest on I will always cherish your memories, Camisha*Tootie**

“ Kate was a very special woman. She loved the Lord with all her heart and loved her family. We had such a great time on our widows cruise to Alaska. She will be missed. But I'll see her again one of these days.

I visited her at Woodland last Friday morning and prayed with her and held her hand and told her so many people loved her and were praying for her- she could barely speak above a whisper but she squeezed my hand and said she loved us..she was one of the strongest women I have ever met- in mind, body and spirit- she loved her Lord, her family, friends and church- she will be missed but we know she is alive and happy in heaven

“ I caught up with her some months back - we had such a great conversation. It was a good visit. Without a doubt - she is in the presence of the Lord. My prayers for those whose hearts are hurting today. And giving thanks for all the lives she touched!
