“ Like many of my dads buddies, Kenneth was my friend and a big influence on me. If it wasn't golf, fishing or quail hunting, he was always good for a good joke or big fish story! He was always good with his advise! Don't worry Kenneth I will not divulge stories of your bird dogs. That would be disrespectful. Miss you already! David Potts

“ Ken Mann was a close friend that I haven't seen in 30 years. We were fraternity brothers, and lit up the Phi Psi house in the 50's. The memories come flooding back as I recall some of the crazy things we did together. Ken kept in touch throughout the years, and I began to worry when he hadn't called to discuss the upcoming football season. Boomer Sooner Ken! Bob Jeffries
