“ Prayers and love to the Titsworth family 🙏🏠 Ray and Dorothy were our neighbors for the last 10 or so years. They were kind to us. Our visits were always enjoyed. We worshipped together at Southside Baptist Church for a few years and we shared a common Christian faith. Ray was always willing to help when needed whenever he could. Great neighbors and friends.

“ Prayers for the family of Mr. Kenneth Titsworth. I remember Mr. Titsworth picking up my kindergarten class and my own children. He always Made sure they were safe and accounted For. He loved everyone of those kids. The last time I saw him was in Muskogee at the VA, it has been 5 or 6 years since I retired and he came over and was so glad to see me. I heart was so full that he recognize me after all those years. We had the best visit, but that was the kind of person he was. Made you feel special and a true friend and colleague. I know he will be missed but never forgotten.
