I remember Lila from grade school in Ft. Cobb. She was such a great and beautiful person, inside and out. We rode the school bus with Joyce McRae and Shirley Haas and I was the tag along, younger. She was always such a true lady and so good to include me. I have lost touch through the years but now know she is rejoicing in heaven. Prayers and sympathy to her family. To have known her was a true blessing.

“ Lila Jean was my Sunday School teacher several different times as I was growing up in Fort Cobb in the '50's. She was one of the prettiest, sweetest people and a hero to me. In school she always had time for a big smile and a hello for "her kids". Oh, and I lived to sit by her in church and listen to her sing. Pretty sure she loved to sit by me too, she made me feel special, also pretty sure she endured my singing. This world list a beautiful soul. Heaven gained an angel.
