

Linda Louise Kellogg

July 4, 1942 - April 12, 2020

On July 4th 1942, the firecracker to become known as Linda Louise Kellogg was born in Okmulgee County to John L and Ethel Mae McElhannon. On August 16th, 1958 Seth Kellogg Sr. swept her off her feet to holy matrimony. Soon, off to Dallas they journeyed where their son Seth Jr. would be born. A few years later they returned home to Okmulgee before their daughter Tammy came along.

Linda Lou was known by many as the "Keeper of all things financial " in the business that was carried on by her and Seth Jr. after Seth Sr.'s untimely and young death. In that position

Linda was respected by many, accepted by most, but normally despised by anyone that didn't pay their debts they had promised her. Her son Seth told her near her end, that he had changed his mind, he didn't wanna run it with out her ... but she chuckled and said "Oh well".

Linda's grit and determination got her through more than one form of cancer. Then sixty years of smokin' cigarettes brought COPD and CHF into the picture. Those medical conditions didn't win without a fight from her!! During one of the last hospitalizations she asked her son how long he thought she had to live. He acknowledged he didn't know, but jus' didn't want her suffering. At 77 years old, and having successfully worked hard all her life, Linda said "I don't wanna be a QUITTER... but if I gotta SUFFER let's git to sufferin' ... cuzz this ain't gittin' it." In spite of her medical challenges Linda's independent streak allowed her to live in her own home with the cooperation of her son and the loving assistance of a lady that came to be a Godsend, Pam Maxwell. Linda's life was definitely enhanced and extended by her daughter Tammy Wade's extreme medical knowledge, especially of all things Sodium, to keep the fluid retention down due to the COPD and CHF. Yes it "Took a village" ... but I believe we all think she was worthy of our joint efforts to keep her comfortable in her home till Jason and Braden Winters and of Winters' Funeral Services rolled her out on a bright Easter Sunday afternoon.

Linda wanted to donate her body to science but acquiesced to traditional embalming so as to assist her friends and loved ones in closure.

Linda Lou was predeceased by both parents and her husband Seth Kellogg Sr. She leaves to cherish her memories her daughter Tammy and husband Dennis Wade. Son Seth and wife Lesa Kellogg. Siblings Kathryn Fulton, Mary Lois and George Harding, brother Dwayne and Connie McElhannon.

Grandchildren Brandy Wade, Lindsay and Jason Welton, their children (great grandchildren) Fin, Keith, Patrick, Kenny, Katie and David. Grandchildren Kelsey Kellogg, Shaun and Jill Raley, their children (great grandchildren) Sierra Lyn, Zane Michael, Piper Grace.

The Kellogg's wish to thank Becky Hair of May's Healthcare and the staff of New Century Hospice for all their attentive care. Seth wants to personally thank Linda's siblings for being such a large support for her journey.

“ She was "My Lady" as I would call her every evening when I would leave to go home. And she would introduce me as her "Woman"! For the last 9 months we laughed together so much! She was a "Hoot"! We cried a little also but not much. She was so up lifted seems like most of the time. I would tell her she needed a younger woman to stay with her cause when she felt good, she would be hard to keep up with! Last fall we would go Shopping and she would ride in the motorized chair and if we could get the camera footage of her going through Wal-Mart or Sprouts, we probably would have made some BIG money! We sure had a lot of fun going out and being home going through recipes and twiking them to have flavor without salt, it was a challenge but we did pretty good. She loved for me to make BIG batches so she could share with her Son and the guys at the shop and with her Sisters, Mary Lois and Kathryn and niece Anita at the office. She loved to share our creations. Linda had a way of making me feel like their was nothing I couldn't do if I tried hard enough, I needed her as much as she needed me and I'm SO glad I got to be there for her last 9 months. Forever Grateful AND Blessed to have been there...Until we meet again "My Lady" Good night💕💕

“ I don't remember very much about my dad but I do remember going to see him after funeral home when he passed. I remember my mother crying over his casket but most of all I remember my Aunt Linda consoling me because of the tears. I was five and a half years old but I remember saying there's something in my eye and I remember her checking my eye and then embracing me in her own tears. I will never forget....
