Lizanne dedicated her career as a secretary for the Muscogee (Creek) Nation, where she proudly put her Associate's degree to use. She was a woman of many passions and talents. Lizanne enjoyed beadwork, playing pool, traveling to new places, dancing, playing dice, riding motorcycles, camping at the lake, and, most importantly, spending cherished time with her family and friends. Lizanne is lovingly remembered by her husband, Mark Stayer; her children, James Holata and wife Danielle, Mark Holata, Matthew Holata and wife Monica, and Miguel Madrigal; her sisters, Barbara Lane, Jamie Holata, and Mary Holata; and her grandchildren, Ryan Holata, Carly James, Lena James, Kayla James, Malek Meyers, Taylor Martines, Avery Holata, Mataly Holata, Issac Madrigal, and Rocia Madrigal. She also leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends who will miss her greatly.

Lizanne will be remembered for her vibrant spirit, her love of life, and the deep connections she shared with those around her.
