

Lucy Mvhayv Chupco

August 19, 2016 - August 1, 2020

Lucy Mvhayv Chupco, beloved daughter of Travis and Kayla Chupco, was born on Friday, August 19, 2016, in Sapulpa, Oklahoma and passed away on August 1, 2020.

From the moment she was born, Lucy adored her parents, Travis and Kayla, and was deeply cherished by them. A joyful and funny little girl, she was thoughtful and full of life. She loved everyone she encountered, and they loved her back. She enjoyed singing and making others laugh, especially her two sisters, Kamille and Mya. Her dolls and Peppa Pig toys were never far away, and her joy in playing was a delight to witness. Lucy was always happy to be outdoors, playing with all creatures from fuzzy to creepy crawly. She also enjoyed spending time with her grandparents and aunts and going to City Church. Above all, Lucy was a fighter with a huge heart and an unshakeable spirit that inspired everyone who knew her.

Left to cherish memories are Lucy's parents, Travis and Kayla Chupco; sisters, Kamille and Mya Chupco; paternal grandparents, Johnny and Mona Chupco; maternal grandparents Elsie and Ronnie Lena; aunts Lola Jackson and husband, Keith; Mariah Lena; Dana Tehee and husband, Joseph; great aunts, Sheri Winn, Mary Dowler, and Jill Miller; cousins, Kaniyah Tiger, Joseph Jr. (L. J) Tehee, Josiah Tehee, Sophie Palinskee; and numerous cousins and friends. She was preceded in death by her great-grandparents, Ruby Chupco and Samuel Chupco; great-grandfather, Namon Bullett; great uncle, Samuel Chupco; great aunt, Cindy Harley; great cousin, Stacie Dry; great uncle, Theron Winn; grandpa, Terro Bendle Winn; and great grandma, Ada Winn.

A funeral service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, August 7, 2020 at the Tallahassee United Methodist Church in Okmulgee. A viewing will be held Thursday, August 6, 2020 from 1:00 - 3:30 p.m. at McClendon-Winters Funeral Home. A wake service will be held at 6:00 p.m. Thursday, August 6, 2020 at Tallahassee Church in Okmulgee, Oklahoma.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home.
