I remember when Mabel and Gordon got married. I was just a kid but I loved Mabel. Went to Falls Creek with Gordon and Mabel as my counselors. They were such fun. I always thought Mabel was so pretty and one of the sweetest ladies I ever knew. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

Mabel was always a nice, kind, and soft spoken person and had a great smile. I grew up with her attending First Baptist Church. Mabel and Gordon have always been one of my favorite couples. Condolences and prayers to the family.

Mabel and Gordon were our neighbors for 20 years before they moved to Baptist Village. Mabel and I continued to stay in touch and her passing leaves a sadness in the lives of all who knew her. She was so sweet and kind and Terry and I send our deepest sympathy to her family.
