

Major Cecil Clifford Waggoner, U.S. Army (ret.)

March 25, 1916 - May 25, 2010

The full life of Major Cecil C. Waggoner came to an end at the glorious age of 94 on May 25, 2010. He was born in Barker, Texas on March 25, 1916 and married the love of his life, Georgia Naomi Galloway, on June 24, 1941 in Tacoma, Washington. He will forever be in the hearts of anyone close to him. Cecil is survived by; daughter Shirleen Waggoner of Goshen, Arkansas, son Gary Waggoner of Morris, Oklahoma, granddaughter Kimberly Waggoner-Filmsmyer and grandson-in-law Lee of Morris, Oklahoma and great granddaughter Brittany Huddleston of Gentry, Arkansas. Cecil was a member of the Episcopal Church. In 1961 he retired from the U.S. Army after twenty years of service. He served in two wars and was a field commissioned officer. After retirement Cecil and Georgia traveled the world in search of rare Bromeliads and Orchids with much success. They were active members of the Bromeliad Society for decades. While they weren't on safari, they were very successful with their cattle ranch in Morris.

Please join us in celebrating the life of Major Cecil C. Waggoner at the Okmulgee Cemetery for graveside services on Tuesday, June 1, at 2:00 P.M. Friends may see Cecil at the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home on Monday, Memorial Day from 1:00 until 8:00 P.M. with the family present to greet guests from 5:00-7:00 P.M.

Previous Events

Service

JUN 1. 2:00 PM.

Graveside

Tribute Wall

“ Major Cecil Clifford Waggoner, U.S. Army (ret.)

December 20, 2022 at 11:29 AM

“ My exwife (Nancy) and I knew Cecil & Georgia thru the Bromeliad Society almost 20 years ago. They were truly gracious and generous people who enjoyed life and loved each other. I remember they even supplied my step-son with water lilies for a science project. My condolences on your loss.

Blessings to you and your families. Ed Apple##imported-begin##Ed Apple##imported-end##

May 31, 2010 at 11:16 AM