

Margaret Janet Fowler

July 30, 1923 - December 31, 2015

Margaret Janet Fowler, a longtime resident of the Okmulgee area, passed away peacefully surrounded by family on Thursday, December 31, 2015. She was born on July 30, 1923, in Dewar, Oklahoma, to Wilburn Roby and Cealie Johanna (Shoun) Ingle. She was one of six children and graduated from Dewar High School.

In 1942, she married the love of her life, James Arlie Fowler. Three months after they married, James was deployed for 29 months to the South Pacific for service in World War II. During this time, Margaret worked in Oakland, California, faithfully and lovingly awaiting James's return. Thankfully, James returned safely, and they moved to Oklahoma and started a family. They had two daughters, Judith Ann and Linda Sue.

Margaret was one of the first in a generation of women empowered with liberation. She was a very successful career woman as an auditor with the US Selective Service System. After her government retirement in 1976, she continued her ambitious endeavors as a realtor. She prided herself in being an accomplished business woman, and her family was proud of her many achievements.

Margaret was a proud member of the Order of Eastern Star and Past Worthy Matron. She was a long time member of the First Baptist Church in Okmulgee.

Above all, throughout her life, Margaret's family was her great and constant love. She was a loving, devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, an accomplished cook, and an incredible dancer. Her family is grateful and consoled knowing that she is with James again, joyfully dancing in his arms.

Margaret was preceded in death by her mother and father, her husband James Fowler, a brother Leon Ingle, sisters Pauline Rogez and Norma Streight, and two infant brothers Gilmer and Robert Ingle. She is survived by her daughter Judith Cline and her husband Mike, daughter Linda Coon and her husband John. Also, survived by her grandchildren Angela Coon, David Coon and his wife Jennifer, Allison Loehr, and Erica Loehr, great-grandchildren Abigail Coon, Eleanor Coon, John Lucas Jameson Coon, and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, other extended family, and many dear friends. A funeral service is scheduled for Monday, January 4, 2015, at 10:00 a.m. at First Baptist Church in Okmulgee, Oklahoma. Interment will follow at Westlawn Cemetery in Henryetta, Oklahoma. Pallbearers will be Mike Cline, John Coon, David Coon, Charles Rogez, Ricky Streight, and Robert Streight. Friends may honor Margaret's memory with contributions to their favorite charity.

“ Growing up next door to you on 10th Street and then again on Moreland Road, what wonderful memories I still have (such an oddity that there would be two daughters....Linda and Judy Wilson in one home & next door, two more sisters....Linda and Judy Fowler....not one, cut twice next door neighbors)! We shared so much.....not just our names but that our Dad's both worked at American St. Gobain & both served valiantly in WWII.

Your mother called me frequently, for awhile, after your dad's passing. I'm not sure why she chose me, but I hope, during that time, I was some comfort to her.

I wish I had known her service was today but we unexpectedly had a grandson who entered life 3 1/2 weeks early on Sunday morning, so I was away. I would love to have seen you both. I have very fond memories of our lives as next door neighbors and of both of your parents.

Linda, you were always a special friend to my beloved Judy Kaye who has been gone for 21 years in March. I would love to see and visit with you again, sometime.

Thinking of you girls and all of your family. Sending you my love and sympathy.
