

Marijo Monday Spottedwolf

January 25, 1944 - March 26, 2015

Marijo Monday Spottedwolf was born January 25 1944 to Jackson Lewis and Ella (Scott) Monday in Okmulgee, Oklahoma. She attended school at Sequoyah Indian School in Tahlequah where she graduated and continued her education at Haskell Indian University. She moved to Dallas, Texas for job placement. She married Donnie Baker and bore 2 sons, Donnie Ray Baker Jr., and Jerry Baker. After the death of Donnie Baker, she married William Brand, they divorced and she married Patrick Spottedwolf in 2004 and adopted his youngest daughter Anna Helen. They made their home in Okmulgee until 2010, when they moved to Clinton, Oklahoma.

Marijo was an avid bowler and was known all over as one of the best in her prime. She was still active bowling in a winter league. She also loved playing bingo, traveling across the USA and Canada and attending powwows with her husband.

Marijo was preceded in death by her parents, four sisters, one brother, and one son.

She is survived by her husband Patrick of the home, one daughter Anna and her husband Joey and grandchildren Arianna and Jayden, one son Jerry Baker and his wife Lusa and grandchildren Zahryna, Eliana, Daniel, and Kerusso, as well as her stepchildren Shawn, Anthony, and Patrice, and their children. Marijo, or "Butters" as she was known to many of her friends, had many adopted brothers, sisters, grandchildren, and also great-grandchildren. Her smile and friendly manner will be missed by many.

Marijo was in my sister's class at Sequoyah and we were all like one big family there at school, she had many friends from Sequoyah and many bowling friends and will be missed by all. My condolences and prayers go out to her family.

“ I first met Donnie Ray Jr in Junior high and loved him as a brother to this day and loved Marijo as a mother. Not only was she a proud woman but she was very proud of her children.
Mom you will be missed, give brother a big hug for me and rest in peace.

“ Marijo was my favorite "Aunt", though we grew up more like sisters. My Mother was her older sister and Marijo came to stay with us every summer since we were little kids. That was some 60 years ago, but she always seemed like a major part of our family. Marijo was one of those people that was always ready to joke around and have a good time. She used to pick on me incessantly, but I loved it! I will miss her everyday until, hopefully, I see her in heaven - I know she is there, because she deserves to be. Patrick and Jerry, my heart breaks for you and your families. I know you have a major hole in your lives now and you will all be in my prayers. Just remember how much she always showered her loved ones with her bubbly personality and gave 100% of her love to us all. She will be greatly missed.
