July 4, 1937 - January 18, 2025

Marjorie Louise (Hardesty) Edmonds passed away Saturday, January 18, 2025, in Okmulgee, Oklahoma at eighty-seven years of age. She was born July 4, 1937, in Henryetta, Oklahoma to the late Robert Henry and Thelma Louise (Howell) Hardesty. She graduated from Morris High School with the class of 1956. Marjorie married Donnie Eugene Edmonds on January 23, 1957. They were lifelong residents of the Morris area.

Marjorie worked at Southwestern Bell / AT&T for 35 years in both Okmulgee and Tulsa. She began as a switchboard operator and ended her career as a payphone coin collector. After retiring from AT&T in the early 1990s, she worked part time as a switchboard operator at OSUIT for several years.

Marjorie enjoyed holidays and all family gatherings. She always brought her camera and insisted on taking pictures of everyone present. Marjorie's grandchildren called her Grandmother and she found joy in making memories with them. She especially enjoyed trips to the pumpkin patch and carving jack-o-lanterns with them. She enjoyed sewing, embroidery, crocheting and piecing quilts. The cathedral quilt was her favorite pattern, and she made it several times. She made sure that all babies in the family received a crocheted afghan or baby quilt from her. Marjorie enjoyed canning garden vegetables and making pickles for her grandsons.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Donnie and grandson Robert Edmonds.

Survivors include her children Don Vernon Edmonds, Lisa Casselman, Debra

(Debbie) Pearce (husband Jim), seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, brothers Robert Hardesty, Michael Hardesty, sisters Sue Mann and Kathleen Shellnutt, sister-in-law Phyllis Shoemake (husband Max), several nieces and nephews.

“ I loved Marjie so. She was so tight with my mother. The two of them would talk on the telephone for hours, and when they were together, the laughter was non-stop. I loved their crazy stories. When I was a child, I thought of her as my aunt because she was closer to my mother's age and they had grown up close to one another. As an adult, I was happy to know her as a cousin and sister. I will miss her so much. Diana Weaver (daughter of Inez Howell Weaver)

“ *Revelations 21:4-5 reminds us that "God will wipe away all tears from their eyes and there will be no more death.....for the former things are passed away..... Behold, I will make all things new." Today Margie is in Paradise with Jesus and all our family that have gone before, rejoicing! Take comfort in knowing this! My thoughts and prayers are with you all. “aunt Margie was always on my side when things didn't seem to go well. We were almost birthday twins. I came four days after her birthday but we always said we were twins since we both was born in July. I can remember as a little kid all the homemade divinity she would make. Man it was delicious! Also remember all the fun we used to hv on Halloween. Then driving out to the farm with her and Uncle Don. I can remember picking up red potatoes after Uncle Don would dig them up! One of my all time favorites when she took us along with Mammy to see The Nutcracker. Afterwards we went to Sonic! Plus the many times she took us all too The Tulsa State Fair.
