

Mark Steven Bennett

December 1, 1955 - August 24, 2012

Mark Steven Bennett was born December 1, 1955, in Okmulgee, Oklahoma. He died of natural causes while on a camping adventure to celebrate his recovery from cancer. He was found in his campsite on the knoll of a mountain in Montana with his two dogs. He last wrote in his journal how at peace he was with himself and how unusually bright and beautiful the stars were that night. Mark was light hearted and it was made of gold. He loved the outdoors, his family, friends and his dogs. Mark's passion was his music and playing the drums. Mark also loved to travel and was privileged to do that in his field of work involving Pipeline Right-of-Way and Petroleum Land Management. Mark is survived by his two dogs Bristow and Harlin; brother David Bennett of Tulsa; five cousins, Steven Beene of Dallas, Ben Thorman, III of Jenks, Ross Thorman of Okmulgee, Randy Thorman of Pryor, Salli Davis of Tulsa and God sister, LeeAnn Martin of Broken Arrow. Services will be held Wednesday at 10:00am, September 5th, at the First United Methodist Church, 1115 S. Boulder Ave., Tulsa. Following a reception, a committal service will be held at the Okmulgee Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully request a donation be made in Mark's memory to either SPCA or Animal Aid.

“ Mark was a great guy. Generous, thoughtful, and cheerful even when the cancer treatments had to have been hurting. I'm really going to miss him. A lot of us will.

Mark was one of the nicest and most considerate guys I have ever known. Wish you didn't have to go so soon. RIP

Mark loved the outdoors. He loved it there in the mountains with Bristow and Harlan looking at the strars. He was----and is---- in a beautiful place. We love you and miss you Mark

I remember when we were around 12 years old and Mark would come over to our house to take drum lessons from my brother. He was a good guy.

My deepest sympathies and condolences go out to Mark's family and his very close friends. Mark was always empathetic, funny and had a sweet disposition. He will be missed very much. His family and friends are in my heart and prayers. I'm very sad to hear that he is gone.
