“ My sincerest condolences. I was lucky that my parents, Lee Roy & Norma McDaniel, met Joe & Mary through square dancing. As a young girl I enjoyed hours of fun with Diana & Tim at the dances; and, then, slumber parties that included Carla Denton. I knew Mary to be a Christian lady who would help anyone who needed it. I loved her positive, joyous outlook on everything. Mary, you will be missed greatly. I have always loved you and your family.

“ So sorry to hear of Mary's passing. She was such a beautiful person, both inside and out. Such a blessing to have known her. To Pat and Diana, keeping you and your family in prayer.

“ I knew Mary from square dancing. I met my longtime friend, Beverly (McDaniel) LaFaver, through Mary and Joe and this activity when I was just a teenager. I want Joe, Tim and Diana to know that I was just thinking about them Sunday and was very surprised and saddened to get the call from Beverly letting me know of Mary’s passing. Both of my parents, Ed and Jo Catlett, have passed on. But, they, too, always thought very highly of Mary. Mary was an inspiration to me as a young teenage girl. She was the first of many women I would meet who faced breast cancer and found the courage and strength to push it into remission. But, Mary didn’t let that define her. She was a magnificent person. I believe God has called home one of his much-loved angels. I am very sorry for your loss. ---- Pam (Catlett) Cline

“ I will always cherish Mary as a friend. I may not see her for a few years but when we did meet it was like It had not been but a day or so. I have so many good memories of Mary I could almost write a book she was always so kind and loving and made an impact on everybody she knew. She had such a gentle soul it touch you without her saying a word. The love she had for all her family was so real she glowed just mentioning their name. She always lived what she beleived. She was one of a kind. I was very lucky too have her touch my life and be my friend. I loved her dearly. Ida Mae Brown
