“ Mary Jane was the best friend that a person could ever wish to have. We have been friends for over 65 years. We worked at the telephone company together in Okmulgee and Tulsa. We lived together in Tulsa during the early 60's.

She is truly a Proverbs 31 lady. As she said on Saturday, we have been together through thick and thin. Her love for her family and her faith in Jesus was evident throughout her life. David was her hero. Almost every conversation would include something about Rhonda, Emma, and Sarah.

I will miss her tremendously.

“ Mary Jane was such a beautiful soul. She was 10 years older than me, but I got to know her and David through my sister, Barbara Lane Vaughan. I went to several of their class reunions. I have never seen a closer class. They made phone calls, and checked on each other so often. My sister, Barbara loved her dearly. She and David were bright lights in this world. I will miss visiting with her about how Barbara was doing with her health issues. It has only been a few weeks ago that she was worried about Barbara, and the Lord took her first. What a beautiful Christian lady! Go rest high on that mountain, sweet Mary Jane!

“ Mary Jane was always a bright spot at the church. I have many sweet memories of her and Dave. Probably the best one was decorating the Christmas tree. Mary Jane always made sure the ornaments had a hanger. Even though she couldn't decorate, she was in the mix with us. Rest in Peace Mary Jane. No more pain, no more holding back. Run those streets of gold.
