“ I was married to you , then who would have ever believed we would have become such good friends till the end of your life. I think it was because of mom. She loved you like a son. Well now you guys are all together.I miss you and your mom and dad. Miss all the things we did together.I miss the thanksgivings . I know how you suffered Michael. I was so glad to see that end.Wish you could've seen that one more snow. Missing you , Linda
