“ My middle-name namesake, my own Betty Boop, my gorgeous Great-Aunt Darlene. I always looked up to her. She was always so glamorous, yet tough; classy but sassy. I will always remember when she would come to visit us here in Texas. I'd always make her tell me stories of her, my grandma, and Memaw. She always had the best stories and told them so well. Made me proud to be a female in this family, and gave me a lot to live up to. I will always remember her strength, something I've always deeply admired her for.

“ Darlene

Thank you so much for the influence you had on my life - everything from making sure I didn't poison anyone when I cooked polk salad, to freezing veggies for the winter! Whether we were playing scrabble or dock fishing, you always made me laugh. I always knew I was loved. Your smile was infectious, and your hugs could cover a multitude of hurts.

We could shop until we dropped or we could work in the gardens until we could not stand up. I have nothing but wonderful memories; partnering in a game of pitch, playing a little cut-throat poker, or taking lessons at Vo-Tech to learn how to use those SLR cameras. Who would have thought then that the digital cameras would have made it so much easier to learn! I love this photo of you (taken in our make-shift studio in Memaw and Papaw's shop). You were such a beautiful lady. You will be forever in my heart.

I will miss you dear friend.
