“ I am so sad to hear of Pat's passing. I got to know Pat during my years at English & English....I looked forward to seeing her every week when she would come in and pick up our legals to be published in The Morris News! We had so much fun visiting when she would come in...we laughed and laughed...always dressed very classy...didn't matter what she had on! She was also a very giving person. She would show up many times with a little gift for me, just something she saw and thought I would like. A very precious person and friend. Love you, Pat!

“ Dear Brenda,Larry,Herman and Families,you are in my thoughts and prayers.

When God takes one we love so much, we have such a sad heavy heart. That is when we must be thankful for the the time you were blessed to have Patsy. She will be with you forever in your hearts, watching over you from her heavenly home.

I am sure, God has her a beautiful mansion up there, where she will be waiting with her arms open to welcome each of you home..

I am sure Patsy brightened the world where ever she was, she will be missed but never forgotten.

We will be with her again up there.

Life is not about waiting for the storm to pass,

It's about learning to dance in the rain !

My prayers and love to each of you,

“ One of the southern ladies I grew up knowing. Her spirit was fiery and she was a lady in everything she did with a twist.

Lol...when it was time for diner she'd ask the boys did you wash your hands ? And then she would send them to the bathroom.

...lol...she'd wink at me and say..we don't gotta worry about it so much but ya know t them boys been handling their peckers....lol.

heaven gained another angel, I'm sure they know she's a pistol!

“ A great Lady, and a friend. She and Herman gave me the job at the Morris News 31 years ago, a job that I still have today. I hope I have justified the trust they put in me so long ago. I remember writing the narrative portion of the Morris history book we published in the 1990s, for a bowl of her fried potatoes. She will be greatly missed, and lovingly remembered, by this veteran journalist.
