

Perry Gene Booker

February 19, 1935 - December 20, 2020

Perry Gene Booker passed away on Sunday December 20, 2020 at the age of 85. Perry was born February 19, 1935 in Hulbert, Oklahoma to the Late Homer and Hazel (Croslin) Booker. He graduated from Liberty Morris in 1953. Perry met Pat Marquardt Booker, the love of his life in 1956. They would meet and go skating every weekend. He was drafted into the United States Army in 1958. Perry would often hitchhike home to see Pat on the weekends. Perry married Patricia Ann Marquardt October 8, 1960 at the Justice of the Peace in Henryetta. He was honorably discharged in 1963. He enjoyed coon hunting with his father in law, fishing and riding his bike. Perry worked several jobs including Pepsi, Red Sewell, and Ball Brothers Glass. He worked at Ball Brothers until he retired in 1991. After the retirement he and Pat moved to Eufaula and spent their days fishing and watching their grandchildren grow up. Perry enjoyed fishing, hunting for arrowheads, and aggravating Pat or anyone else he could give a hard time. They moved back to Okmulgee in 2002 to be closer to their grandkids. He was always well known for his amazing gardens, rather it be his delicious tomatoes or large cabbages, everyone was always amazed.

Perry is preceded in death by both his parents, Homer and Hazel, his mother and father-in-law, Leo F. and Leo Marquardt, sister Genine Brown, brothers Anthony, Robert, Jackie, Doyle, and John (Dewayne) Booker, and his great granddaughter Kaydence Golightly.

Perry leaves behind his loving wife Patricia Booker; a son Phil Booker and wife Ruby of Bixby; daughter Cindi Golightly and Husband Wayne of Morris; a nephew that was like a son Rick Wolfe; two grandsons Duston Golightly and wife Lindsey of Morris, Brooks Booker of Tulsa; two granddaughters Jamie Golightly and husband Wesley Steph of Okmulgee, Desiree Hall and husband Brook of Tulsa; five great grandchildren Jaiden, Jasey, Leighton, Ryan, and Abel; sisters Linda Osburn and husband Henry of Preston, Darlene Ray and husband Delbert of Preston, Joyce Cash and husband Ed of Texas, and Bernice Snelson and husband Bob of Preston; brother Paul Booker. He gained many honorary children and grandchildren over the years and had many special nieces and nephews. We will always carry your memory in our hearts.

My condolences to Pat, Phil, Cindy and all of the family. One of my fondest memories of Perry is when I left the Marine Corps in the summer, 1983, I stopped by the Booker house to say hello. He was silent for a bit, then said, "civilian life is going to eat you alive". From one vet to another, he picked that up right away. He didn't miss it by much! I thought of him often, we'll meet again someday.

Very sorry to here about the passing of Perry. I have so many wonderful memories of the Booker family while growing up in Okmulgee. Perry would always play basketball in the driveway with us and loved to talk it up. So much fun. Condolences to Pat, Phillip and Cindy as well as the entire family. May God Bless during this difficult time.

“ I'll miss you Perry when we come to Oklahoma to visit. My main memory is my middle name that Mom said you gave me because you wanted another brother. Sorry you didn't get one. Got me instead. Joyce DEAN. Every time I tell someone my full name they look at me and say Dean. I have to tell them the story. Tell all our other heavenly angels hi for me💕💕
