“ Randy, I still can not believe this news is true. You will be truly missed. No matter what I never saw you without that huge smile on your face. Thank you for always being such a wonderful friend to myself and my kids and always included them in your own family functions. I remember going to several different places and hearing your band play in fact up until recently I still had a old shot glass from a place you played back when I was around 21 we won't get into how old that makes me now. Fly high and hope we get to meet again my friend. My love and prayers to your family. Yvette Anaya
