“ Today we said our final goodbyes. The hardest thing I've ever done. To those that knew my dad, I don't have to tell you what kind of man he was. To those that didn't, or had the chance, but didn't take it, you missed an incredible, loving, honest, caring, devoted man. He loved his Jesus, and his family, even the ones that turned away. I will never forget the gentleness that he was. He was a quiet man, but he spoke volumes with his how he lived his life. He left a legacy that we all can strive to leave one day. To be just like him is my prayer, to love unconditionally, to accept those who may be different, to love even my enemies, just as he did. I will never forget what you meant to me, how you showed me what true love was all about. How to live a humble life, to never take for granted each day that we are given. I will miss you beyond measure, and I love you as big as the sky. I thank God for giving me such an amazing man to call my dad. It was an honor to be your daughter. I love you daddy...until I see you again...

Ransom and I were classmates at Henryetta High and graduated in 1959. I remember him as a kind and pleasant person to know. He wrote in my senior yearbook in 1959: "To a real nice person! Best wishes for your future. Ransom Thomas." I send my condolences to all his family. Geraldine Middleton Williams

“ *So sorry to hear of the passing of my classmate, Ransom Thomas. We were so glad to see him at our 50th reunion. Ransom was always pleasant to be around and was well respected by his classmates. Our loss is heaven's gain, and we will always remember him with the fondness of memories. May God bless his family as they go through losing this precious person. With sincere sympathy and prayers,

“ From our years in high school, I remember Ransom as my good friend who always spoke to me when and wherever our paths crossed. I remember Ransom as a quiet person who was supportive of all his friends, earning respect from everyone who knew him. To me, Ransom was a very good example of the man Paul described in 1 Thessalonians 4:11-12. I am sorry he has gone. Surely his family will miss him tremendously.
