“ Raymond was much loved by his Grandparents Winfred and Dorothy Yocham. His Aunt and Uncles just a few years older than him. He would be in our home on Saturday night and the Grand Ole Opry would come on T.V. He was about 2 years old. He would get in front of that T.V. and boy could he cut-a-rug..he would tell us all about his goats (he never really had any) and we would agg him on to tell more. He was a sweet little boy and he grew into a fine man. We will miss him. We loved him very much.

“ To the family of Raymond Hart. When I open my paper, I was so surprised to see Raymond's name in the obituary. My name is Susie Brown my brother is Steve Harvey we all grew up together. Raymond truly was a hard worker that guy would go any where they wanted to send him. We were a group of maybe 12 to 15 . Several of us have passed this is one if the hard things of getting older. Raymond you will be missed by all! From the old crowd
