“ Our hearts go out to the family today. Becky became one of our favorite people in the Okmulgee area. She was a good friend that we always enjoyed seeing. The only comfort I can think of in all of this is the memories you can share. She was such a giving person, it is hard to think about as she would have given whatever she had to anyone that needed it. We just remember a little boy with a coonhound and a mom that didn't let them down. That is where our friendship started and remained with all of our lives changing throughout the years. Josh, our hearts are heavy for you! God speed Becky.

“ *Josh and Family,
She was such a sweet and kind lady with a big heart. She invited my kids to Beggs with open arms. If we didnt stop at the store in the morning she would ask me "Were you running late" or "the babies weren't hungry" she knew me all to well. We we driving thru Midway one day and seen her at the store over there and she told me "im still taking care of yall" We will miss her sweet smiling face.I'm so grateful to have known your mother* ❤️

“ Growing up in Jenks, Becky's family and mine lived on the same street - just one block apart. I remember when she got to drive to school and I got to ride along. We would stop on the way to get a Dr. Pepper and a package of the little chocolate covered donuts. Those were fun days. It is nice to have those memories of the families we grew up with. I have been reading the many, many tributes here for Becky. It is obvious she lived her life with a smile for everyone and a caring heart. Praying for her family that God will give you comfort and peace.

“ My Aunt Becky...what can I say lovely lady? Anytime I ever needed you all I had to do was call and often that wasnt even necessary. I spent many many summers with you and can remember hundreds of shopping trips, days spent swimming in the weird bowl shaped swimming pool, sleeping on the screened in back porch all summer, and you just generally running me all over and back again. I remember getting spanked with the hair brush, especially the last time you sent me out to get my switch when I was 15...lol. Rest peacefully Aunt Becky you will be missed by so many...

“ We grew up with Becky, Martha, and Ricky in Jenks. We lived just a block apart on Beaver Street and became friends before we started school. What a privilege to have known them and their mom and dad. We have so many happy childhood memories of riding bikes together, collecting pop bottles to sell for pennies to buy candy, swinging on tire swings, hide-outs, playing marbles and jacks, snacking on a sleeve of saltines, and all kinds of adventures shared. God Bless those who are left behind. May He give you peace and comfort in the knowlege that Becky is with those who went before her and loved her, too. She touched so many lives and gave so freely to those in need. Her heart was full of love and she has reached perfection in our Savior's arms.

“ Becky Mae was not only my Cousin she was the Sister I never had. We often teased each other that she should have been my mother's daughter and I should have been Joy's. She was that much like her beloved Aunt Chris and I was like Aunt Joy. Becky, always had an open door and an open heart to anyone and everyone. Becky I know that you are celebrating in heaven with Uncle Clyde, Aunt Joy, Martha Ruth and Rick. And of course, Uncle Bud, Aunt Chris and Buddy, give them all my love. As you are welcomed into Jesus arms, feel the love that all of us have for you. For you will never truly know how much you were loved. We will all cherish our memories of that beautiful smile you had for us all. Love you, Sis! Ruth Ann Betts

I was saddened to hear of the sudden passing of Becky. She was my neighbour for a few years and always loved greeting her in the store, in passing of vehicles, walking etc. May you always have the memories of such a wonderful person. She will forever be in your hearts and minds, in the little things you do and say. Always remember, when you close your eyes, she will be there. Blessing to your family

We had a death in our family, and although she didn't know the person that passed, she showed up at our house with a huge bag of Kentucky Fried Chicken. She was such a wonderful person.
