

Rhonda Jo Parrish

April 25, 1958 - October 2, 2020

Rhonda Jo Parrish was born April 25, 1958 in Fayetteville, North Carolina to Ronald Dean and JoAnn (Kuehne) Singley. Rhonda passed away on Friday, October 2, 2020 at St. John Hospital after her courageous battle. She grew up in various places along the journey of her dad's military career. Rhonda graduated from high school in Arapahoe, Colorado. While living in Denver Rhonda worked for Nelnet for 25 years as an accounts payable and receivables manager. She married Phillip Parrish in Littleton, Colorado on February 12, 2000. Later they moved to the Okmulgee area and Rhonda managed the OCHS Thrift Store until her retirement. Rhonda loved sewing and making things. She made all of the curtains for the house she and Phillip built. She enjoyed being outside and loved her grandkids like crazy. She liked going to lake Eufaula and spending time at her parents lake house with friends and family.

Rhonda is survived by her husband Phillip Parrish of 20 years, parents Ron and Jo Ann Singley of Sand Springs, son David Doody of Denver, daughter Patricia Doody of Denver, brother Donald Singley of Morris, grandchildren Trenton Montgomery of Denver, Shelby Ann Doody of Sand Springs.

A memorial service will be held a later time. In lieu of flowers or cards the family request that a donation be made to St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Rhonda's name.

Cremation arrangements have been entrusted to the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home of Okmulgee. Memories, condolences, photos and videos may be shared with the family on Rhonda's Tribute Page of our website at www.mclendon-winters.com

“ I loved her tenacity. She wasn't a rule follower and was very compassionate. She had a big heart in such a small package. I adored her and was glad I had a chance to work with her for a little while. She was scrappy and genuine. I am so sorry for her family's loss.
