“ My sincere condolences to the family of Richard Weaver. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in God's promise to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) While grief at the loss of Richard is great, joy at welcoming him back in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;39-42) With deepest sympathy,

“ Laurie I am so sorry. I was part of Rick's work life and he will be missed. Cannot believe he is gone. We here at PSO will miss his smile every time he walked up on the Dock. May you just remember all the good times you had with Rick and that will fill your heart with joy.

“ I'll always remember our motorcycle trips, all of the mishaps, ALWAYS getting caught in the rain and getting soaked to the skin, almost every trip we took it rained. But even though at the time we felt kind of miserable because of the cold and wet, our boot squishing with every step, we can look back on those times and laugh. Your Dad and I are already missing you so much. Life isn't fair. this should not have happened. I will take good care of your Dad. I love him very, very much, and I can hardly stand the pain of seeing him grieving so hard over your loss. I love you too, Rick. We miss you very much.
