“ Rodney grew up with my sister, Rae Ann, and I grew up with Karla. I have loved this family all my life. It was 40 years ago, which is hard to believe, but it seems like yesterday, that Rodney, Junior, and others spent the last few minutes every day before the first bell rang gathered around those red Ford F150s listening to a George Strait cassette loud enough for the whole school to hear. Now 40 years later, every time I hear "Amarillo by Morning" on the radio, my first thought is of Rodney King. My most heartfelt condolences to Karla and the rest of the family. I know Rodney will be greatly missed but his influence will be everlasting. The world is a lesser place without him.
