

Ronald L. McNack Sr.

November 14, 1951 - September 3, 2025

Ronald L. McNack (Love) was born to Cornelius Love and Fannie Mae Hyche, on November 14, 1951, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Ronald attended Carter G. Wilson High and later graduated from Eastern Oklahoma State College in Wilburton, Oklahoma, where he studied electronics. After graduating, he worked at Lawrence Logistics before journeying over to Rockwell/Boeing Spirit Aero Systems where he spent his life until he retired.

Ronald grew up in church, but it wasn't until he met and married Marsha Youngblood on August 11, 1980, that he gave his life to Christ and with this union four children were born.

Ronald had a true love for serving God and studying the Bible. While he attended church, He served as the superintendent for Sunday School, was a Sunday School teacher, and tried his hand in the senior choir. He enjoyed being an active participant in Church plays and skits, at the First Baptist Church South of Beggs. He later attended New Salem Baptist Church also working as the superintendent of Sunday School, doing church skits, and was helper with the Deacon as needed. He was always striving to serve the Lord and his church in the best ways possible. He was the true epitome of a true Christian.

The Master had a bigger plan for him, so he was called home on September

3, 2025. Preceding him in death was his mother, Fannie Mae Hyche and Stepfather, Caldwell Hyche.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife, Marsha, four children, Ronnie McNack Jr. (Kendra) of Pryor, MarKeesha (Milton) Dean of Tulsa, Rashonda Peters of Bixby, Terry (April) McNack of Arkansas, brothers, Johnny (Alice) McNack of Maryland, Lonell (Myra) Hyche of Wagoner, Beverly (Bobby) Robertson of Wagoner, 11 grand kids, nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Viewing will be 1:00PM to 6:00PM, Thursday, September 11, 2025, at the McClendon-Winters Funeral Home in Beggs.
