“ I am saddened at the passing of Rosemary Presser. She was an amazing woman and sister in Christ. God blessed her with a long life which enabled her to bless the lives of so many people. I loved her spirit: always spreading joy, filling a room with her laugh, always smiling. She and my mother, Pat Bell, were friends for many many years. Interestingly, they both lived to age 93. To Beverly, David, and Steve, it is difficult to say goodbye to a mother. They always cared and sacrificed anything and everything for their children. Rosemary was that way for you. God bless and comfort you at this time. May your lives be continually filled with plenty of wonderful memories of the the years you had with your mother.

“ Eddie & Rosemary Presser were wonderful people and the best neighbors! It was a great honor to live next to them for so many years, Both of our sons would go over and help Rosemary whenever she needed things done. They would trim trees, bushes & rake up her magnolia leaves. The things that would help instill neighborly values.
Rosemary enjoyed the many different animals & pets I would bring home and loved having Randy's herd of cattle roaming out side her windows.
Rosemary will be missed by our family and all of her friends in our neighborhood.
Our deepest condolences to her family.

“ I'm am so sorry. I did Rosemary's hair for 25 years. We had hours and hours together talking about all sorts of things. I had the honor of doing her mothers hair.. There was quite the age difference between us but I feel like she was one of my best friends. We even spoke about this very day and how she would be ready however it happened. So another piece of my heart is gone with her. I love you ❤️ Our deepest condolences to the Presser family. Jamie Parker & family...

“ Rosemary was a 'west side' neighborhood friend for many years; and, she and husband Eddie were two of the most hospitable persons one could ever wish to know. She had a compassionate personality, an envious smile and the grace of her faith to make her the beautiful person she was while on this earth. My sincere sympathy to her children who were so lucky to have had the good Mother God gave them.
