“ I will always remember her as the nicest "lunch lady" ever. She worked at Franklin School in the cafeteria when I was in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades and I always looked forward to my turn to help in the kitchen at lunch time. She and Mrs Rucqouy were both so very nice to me and I've never forgotten either of them. Her daughter Donna was also my classmate. I'm very sorry for the loss of your Mom Donna and my condolences to your family. Cindy (Guffey) McCulloch

“ Donna, oh I am so sorry to hear of your mom passing away. I often think of all the times the 4 of us were together always at each others homes. I have such fond memories of those times. Know that my prayers are with you and your family. Love Barbara

“ *Dear Donna,
Your sweet momma, Ruby, I loved her. You and your parents included me in so many of your family events. I loved camping, sleep overs, delicious meals at your house, and such wonderful times.*
love,
Gwyn
