“ Sam was my neighbor for over 20 years. We frequently met at the mailbox and talked. He was a good neighbor. We will miss him driving his little red truck and waving as he drove by..when my grandson was little he always called out to say hi to Sam, and Sam would always respond with "hi little buddy" we will miss him.....

“ Sam was a special man who will be greatly missed by our Beggs School family! I appreciated how Sam always had time for a friendly greeting and conversation no matter where I saw him. Always kind, always smiling and always a positive part of this school and community. We are blessed to have known and worked with Sam!
