Many prayers to Ashlie and Gerry. Enjoyed visiting with Sandy when I lived next door. She was always out walking her pasture in the evening. She would share vegetables from their garden and helped check on the horses when I was at work. She loved telling about Ashlie's success in the barrel racing. She will be missed by many.

“ Sandy was an instrumental voice of reason when I was younger. She always encouraged me to go after what I wanted. She gave me brutal honesty when I may not have wanted it but needed it. She came into my families life by chance and became a fixture that everyone loved. I always loved coming home and seeing her car in the driveway. She always made time to talk and gossip with me about what was going on in my life and her own. She treated my kids like family. She will be dearly missed, but I know that my parents and aunt were so happy to see her on the other side.
