“ Sherri was one of the sweetest people I ever met. I will never forget her laugh and glowing smile. She taught me so much when she was our Sunday school leader way back in the day and I cherish the time I got to spend with her then. Can't wait to see her again! I know she is smiling on her precious family with her soul mate. No more tears Sherri. Prayers for her family and friends.

“ One of my earliest memories of Aunt Sher is seeing her on the sidelines, passionately cheering at Uncle Bupa’s basketball games. I may not remember the football games, but those basketball games are unforgettable. Her voice always rose above the rest of the cheerleaders—full of energy and spirit. As a child, it was a little intimidating when she’d call out the crowd for not cheering loudly enough, but it just showed how much heart she had.

Butch, her children, and her grandchildren were her entire world. Her passing leaves an ache in our hearts. We will miss her dearly. In our sorrow, we find comfort in knowing that she and Butch are together again.
