

Shonda Rhae Foreman

May 4, 1988 - November 12, 2023

Shonda Foreman lost her battle to cancer on November 12, 2023, at the age of 35. She was born on May 04, 1988, in Mena, Arkansas to Dennis Foreman and Ronda (Sunderman) Epperson where she grew up and later moved to Morris, Oklahoma. She graduated from Morris High School in 2006. After graduation she worked in retail with her mom at Coalton Feeds, Wal-Mart and was working at Homeland as a butcher's assistant. Shonda was really good connecting with people. She loved helping others.

Shonda soaked in the time she spent outdoors. She and her family liked camping and fishing. One of her favorite things to do was to ride the motorcycle with Larry, feeling the wind in her face while she helped navigate from the back of the seat. She was quite skilled in hunting, using a bow and shooting. Shonda loved listening to and attending rock concerts.

Shonda is preceded in death by a brother Clayton Lee Smith, grandfather's Ronald Edward Sunderman and Lawrence Michael Barsic.

She is survived by her husband Larry Weaver, daughter Makayla, stepchildren Hailey Weaver, Brittany Weaver, Seth Weaver and wife Harley and grandson River Weaver, mother Ronda Epperson and husband Ray, father Johnny Foreman and wife Karen, brothers Dusty Foreman and wife Maegan, Trey Edward Foreman and Elizabeth, and Brian Porter and wife Katelyn, sister Misty Belt and husband Sam, step-brother Matthew Epperson and wife Jennifer, step-sisters Rebecca Washington, Ashley Williams and husband Roy, Amber Hogan, and Kristy Barnes, grandmothers Bletta Sunderman and

Jeanne Barsic, mother-in-law DeAnna Cope, lots of cousins and being the best

Aunt Nae-Nae to numerous nieces and nephews.
