“ I worked for many years with Steve at Okmulgee Public Works. I never heard him say a bad word about anything. He was always very kind toward me. He showed up every day, did his job, and never complained. I wish there were more people like him. He made a difference. (s) Sherrie Smith

“ Since Steve’s dad and my dad were friends since the 1930s, Steve was more like a family member to our family. So many wonderful memories of our families visiting in OKC & Okmulgee, vacations to Yellowstone, Seattle and beyond.

Rest in peace. I can imagine the great family reunion that was waiting for you.

Peace and love to Rodney and family. Don & Dona
